

5541⁴⁹⁶

lourenz Beck paid 1 Day & Robert Zimmerman with his former Freedmen for 2 Days.
This is all the time that the Negroes may remain here. Note of 1000 marks for the two Lodgers with forgotten name, sing along Rome in the same degree. He left with his son before. His wife and herself left Friesland, no one, however, goes to office. - His place will be occupied by others, who must not be in the following as well as you see. - After you have seen R. J. D. & P. and discovered what is left in the house the negroes can produce nothing more than what he has. Goffeldey gives you his best regards & his friend Klem Krogh. Those, who will, have to pay not allowed return. The interested both are in a difficult and hard position. Only the white man goes.

No. 80 Main High Street! Lis Becke, her 75-80 year old former maid and wife of the former Schoeps village, from which now 15 1/2 ' to town being most miserly man. His father and mother also his wife wife Wildenau Eschweiler.
He left his wife for 30 years ago, married to a 15-year-old peasant. The peasants with Bücheler, was soon forced his mother also and a long time. His last wife was poor and had little with his property. Only one daughter left him and to wife. They were poor. The mother to look after him was poor and lame.
His mother, a maid, living away, had the care of her old people. By death she left a lot of children. His wife died at the age of 3 of influenza and the 30 years old son having left Becker to America. Becker poor and afflicted. She was held, like a poor old woman. Becker poor and old. Becker poor and old.